

Australasian Hospitality Gaming Expo Conditions of Entry

The Australasian Hospitality Gaming Expo is a trade exhibition, for management, director and staff representatives of a Hospitality Industry Organisation, defined as registered clubs, hotels, casinos and hospitality venues only; and relevant government, regulatory, and support bodies; and any other organisation that the organiser deems as a Hospitality Industry Organisation

Trade suppliers are not eligible to attend the event unless exhibiting.

Conditions of entry:

- All Visitors and Exhibitors are required to follow any Queensland Government Health Directives which are in place at the time of the event
- Entrance is by authorised Entry Badge only;
- Entry Badges are not transferable;
- Entry Badges must be worn in plain view at all times;
- Proof of identity may be required;
- Proof of affiliation with a hospitality industry organisation (as described above) may be required;
- Any Entry Badge not matching the identity of the wearer will be confiscated;
- Any person attempting to enter the event using another person's Entry Badge will be excluded from the event;
- Photography is only permitted with the permission of the subject Exhibitor and Event management;
- Event management may reject any Visitor or Exhibitor registration at its sole discretion;
- Event management may refuse admission to any person;
- Event management may exclude any person whose behaviour it considers is not appropriate;
- Event management may search any bags or other possessions of Visitors or Exhibitors entering the event;
- Any person who is not an Exhibitor and is observed conducting sales activities during the exhibition will be excluded from the event;
- Visitors may not disrupt or distract sales activities conducted by Exhibitors;
- Exhibitor registrations are approved for those employed directly by the contracted stand holder;
- Visitors and Exhibitors breaching these conditions of entry may be excluded from the event.