AUSTRALASIAN HOSPITALITY & GAMING

THE AHG CONGRESS

Tuesday 11 March | $180pp
Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre

Tom Potter

Tom founded Eagle Boys Pizza in Albury, NSW in 1987 with minimal education and money behind him. His is a life story told with great humour, passion, and fun.

From beginning as a small business and growing to the largest privately owned pizza company in Australia and New Zealand, he will speak about radical change and business and marketing tactics. Tom has won national franchising awards, Australian Financial Review's Young Business Person of the Year, and he gave the valedictorian speech at his graduation class at Harvard Business School.

Jordana Borensztajn

Jordana is a world-leading public speaking trainer, having personally coached multi-millionaires, celebrities and sports stars. She is also a multi-talented keynote speaker, event MC, humourist, author, and workshop trainer. Dynamic, playful, and vibrant, Jordana's energy radiates from the stage straight to the hearts of her audience members in a joyful and meaningful way.

Jordana was a News Corp Australia journalist, she worked at Nova Entertainment as online music editor, content producer and social media manager, she's written two business-marketing books and an illustrated children's book, and she's performed two sold-out shows in the Melbourne International Comedy Festival.

Warren Tapp

Warren is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and he has an MBA, Master of Laws, and Graduate Diploma of Corporate Governance.

He is currently completing a PhD in law on Governance in Licensed Clubs, and has published two books on governance and company directors. Warren has served on 28 Boards, and been Chair of 14 of those Boards.

Club Association Panel Session

Hear from CEOs of the six leading Club Associations on current challenges and opportunities. Learn how collaboration and partnerships aim to build a stronger club industry.

The AHG Congress tickets are $180 per person and include all Congress sessions, lunch, and refreshments throughout the day.

The AHG Congress will equip you with essential tools to confront challenges in the present market and discover strategies to effectively manage risks, ensuring your club's resilience and strength in the future.
